Becker

- BCNA and parents met with Dr. Forgione 3/14
- Latest options being considered by AISD are to keep Becker open or close it altogether. The Pre-K center is no longer being considered for Becker for now
- Lorie Moya will be new AISD board representative for Bouldin as she is running unopposed
- Alberto Gonzalez attended the meeting. He is running for the at-large District 9 position
  - Alberto suggested that we request current board to table the proposal since four positions are up rather than make decision now
  - Alberto also committed to vote to keep school open if elected
- If Becker was closed altogether, alternative learning center would most likely move
- Ways to help
  - Wear royal blue and attend AISD board meetings on March 20 & 27
  - Contact media, including writing letters to the Statesman and Chronicle
  - Help gather 400 more signatures on petition

Save Our Springs city charter amendments

- Colin Clark and Brad Rockwell spoke to the group about the charter amendments and requested that BCNA endorse them.
- SOS amendment - Colin Clark
  - Colin reviewed the content and purpose of the amendment and the group discussed it
  - No quorum – only 17 registered voters
  - Nonbinding informal vote to support amendment, 32 for, 1 abstention
- Open government amendment - Brad Rockwell
  - Brad reviewed the content and purpose of the amendment and the group discussed it
  - Nonbinding informal vote to support 30 for, 1 opposed, 2 abstention

McMansion ordinance

Will Burkhardt

Current moratorium expires June 6

Will is part of a task force working on a long-term proposal for residential construction limits, specifically focused on limiting 'massing'
