In such instances, the absent Committee Member may assign another BCNA Member as proxy to attend the Committee meeting and vote in his or her stead. This proxy assignment must be communicated by e-mail to the other Committee Members in advance of the meeting, and this e-mail must identify the proxy and their conflicting BCNA business.

Section 5. Steering Committee

a) The provisions in this Article VSection 5 apply only to the Steering Committee. These provisions apply notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these By-Laws.

c) Quorum for the Steering Committee is seven (7) Steering Committee Members. The positions of any Steering Committee Members who have missed three (3) consecutive regularly scheduled Steering Committee meetings shall be deemed vacant for quorum purposes and the quorum requirement for the Steering Committee will be reduced to one-half of the remaining Steering Committee.

d) Except as provided below, recommendations to the Steering Committee will only be binding upon the BCNA once they have been confirmed by a majority vote of a quorum of the General Membership, except that the Steering Committee may vote to bind the BCNA as follows:

- i. exigent reasons requiring a prompt decision that were not reasonably foreseeable in time for a vote at a regular General Membership meeting must exist for the Steering Committee to decide an issue on behalf of the BCNA prior to the next General Membership Meeting;
- ii. such decision must be as limited as possible given the exigent circumstances; and
- iii. at least two-thirds of the Steering Committee present at the Steering Committee meeting in which that vote occurs must vote to bind the BCNA in such a manner, as long as there is a quorum. Where specifically provided by these By-Laws, a simple majority vote of the Steering Committee will suffice to bind the BCNA.

e) Examples of “exigent reasons requiring a prompt decision that were not reasonably foreseeable” include, but are not limited to, responding to local government agency notices, inquiries, or hearings which are scheduled on short notice and require a response or other action, emergency response to surprise calamities or hardships that beset the Neighborhood, the dissemination of news or information vital to the wellbeing of the Neighborhood, and responding to beneficial surprise opportunities which require swift and rapid action in order to capitalize upon such opportunities.

If the underlying issues are not settled, resolved, or otherwise moot, then the General Membership may vote to change the position of the BCNA as previously determined by the Steering Committee.

h) Without prior General Membership approval, the Steering Committee may approve any allocations of BCNA general funds for non-recurring expenses which support the mission of the BCNA, as long as such expenses do not exceed the sum of $500.00 in the aggregate per fiscal quarter and as long as such expenses are approved by a vote of the Steering Committee.

i) The Steering Committee may delegate two or more BCNA Members as limited agents to negotiate with outside parties on the BCNA's behalf. Agreements reached through such negotiations will not be binding upon the BCNA until the General Membership or Steering Committee, as applicable, has voted on and approved the agreement in accordance with these by-laws.

Section 6. Zoning Committee

The Steering Committee will publicize to the Membership any decisions to resolve contested election appeals, issues, or questions.

A conflict of interest exists when a BCNA Officer, Sector Representative, or any other Member may realize any unique direct financial or material benefits from business before the BCNA or from a potential decision by the BCNA. Such benefit should be relatively unique to the Member for a conflict of interest to exist—for example, the potential for benefits to Members from BCNA decisions affecting the entire Neighborhood does not create a conflict of interest. In cases where a conflict of interest exists, the individual must recuse himself or herself from voting on any such business or decision. In cases where a conflict of interest exists for a Committee Member, the individual must also recuse himself or herself from participating in any discussion in the Committee of such business or decision, including e-mail discussions. A Committee Member with a conflict of interest may still present his or her case to the Committee. Section 4. Replacement of Officers
